

Friday, October 13th, 1922 Friday. Received the following information, that on September 15th, 1922, daylight saving time. Mr. Mills saw Mrs. Hall about 7 A.M., at the Church. Mills told Mrs. Hall, do you think it is an elopement, at 12 noon Friday. 5 P.M. Friday near the ice-box at Mills house and at 7 P.M. at Mrs. Halls House. Spoke on the porch 3 P.M. That on September 14th, 1922 Mrs. Opie a neighbor of Mills received a telephone call for Eleanor and said it was Mr. Hall's voice on the telephone. Mrs. Opie went to Mills house and delivered the message no one answered, but Mrs. Opie delivered the message later and Mrs. Mills said she knew who the call was from, that she was in the house and probably asleep. Some one said Mrs. Mills used outside telephone at about 7 P.M. on September 14th, 1922 probably Blitz's store telephone.

Further information. Mr. Hall seen by James Reed, fish store man of 161 George Street, N.B., on George Street proper about 7:30 P.M., September 14th, 1922, and said good afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

Further information. Ryan, conductor of trolly car saw Mrs. Mills get of same at the end of Eastern Avenue while he was off duty, and said to motorman and conductor of the small car, that is Miss Barnhardt, I knew her when she was a girl. The time of the scene was about 8:10 P.M. Hall attended Parent Teacher's Meeting at about 4 P.M. September 14th, 1922, from there went to see a Miss Jamison and left flowers at her home, and then to St. Peter's hospital, the time was about 5:50 P.M.

Mrs. J. Hawkins saw Mrs. Mills first and Mr. Hall afterwards walking in the direction of the Parker house, she met them opposite the trade school.

Further information. A Mr. Danstadt, who has a candy store corner of Troop Street or Avenue, said it was common gossip about Mrs. Mills and Mr. Hall being seen together.

Further information. The following occurred at the Parker home before July 15th, 1922. Mrs. Mills threw herself on a couch after a prayer